Section 1 – Parts of a Patent
- Authorities Underlying U.S. Patent System
- Three Types of U.S. Patents
- The Three Parts of a Utility Patent
- Drawings
- Specification
- Written Description Requirement
- Enablement
- Best Mode
- Important Characteristics of the Description, Enablement and Best Mode Requirements

Section 2 – Claims
- Three Parts of a Claim
- Claim Interpretation at the Patent Office
- Transitional Phrases
- “Reading” a Claim on Something
- Definiteness Requirement
- Ways to Narrow Claims
- Narrowed Independent Claims
- Dependent Claims
- Narrowing a Claim by Adding a Limitation Modifying a Claim Element Recited in a Broader Claim
- Narrowing Method Claims
- Inherently Present Claim Limitations
- Multiple Dependent Claims
- Subcombination and Combination Claims
- Genus and Species Claims
- Means-Plus-Function Clauses
- USPTO Analysis to Determine if a Clause Is a §112(f) Means-Plus-Function Clause
- USPTO Requirements Prerequisite to Finding Equivalence Under §112(f)
- Step-Plus-Function Limitations
- Ranges
- Negative Limitations
- Relative Terminology in Claims
- Exemplary Terminology
- Markush Groups
- Improvement (Jepson-Type) Claims
- Product-by-Process Claims

- 35 U.S.C. §102
- AIA §102 Conditions for Patentability; Novelty
- AIA 35 U.S.C. §102 Overview
- The Eight AIA §102(a) Prior Art Events
• Determining Whether to Apply AIA §102 or Pre-AIA §102
• Scenario A: AIA §102(a) Prior Art – No Priority or Benefit Claim
• Scenario B: AIA §102(a) Prior Art – Priority or Benefit Claim With New Matter
• Scenario C: AIA §102(a) Prior Art Involving Family of Three Applications and New Matter
• AIA 35 U.S.C. §102(a)(1) Overview
  • “Patented” as a Prior Art Under AIA §102(a)(1)
  • Printed Publications as AIA §102(a)(1) Prior Art
  • “Public Use” as a Prior Art Under AIA §102(a)(1)
  • “On Sale” as a Prior Art Under AIA §102(a)(1)
  • “Otherwise Available to the Public” as a Prior Art Under AIA §102(a)(1)
• Inherency vis-à-vis Anticipation and Enablement
  • AIA §102(b)(1) Exceptions Disqualifying AIA §102(a)(1) Events From Constituting Prior Art
  • §102(b)(1)(A) Exception – Inventor-Originated Disclosure is Disqualified as §102(a)(1) Prior Art
  • §102(b)(1)(B) Exception – Inventor-Originated Public May Disqualify a Later Disclosure by Another as Prior Art (AKA “Shielding”)
• Overview of Pre-AIA 35 U.S.C. §102 (Except §102(e))
• Pre-AIA 35 U.S.C. §102 Conditions for Patentability; Novelty and Loss of Right to a Patent
• Pre-AIA §102(a) and (e) Date of Invention – Concepts
• Pre-AIA 35 U.S.C. §102(a) Overview
• Pre-AIA 35 U.S.C. §102(a) Key Concepts
• Pre-AIA 35 U.S.C. §102(b) Overview
• Differences – AIA §102(a)(1) and Pre-AIA §102(b) “In Public Use” and “On Sale” Prior Art Events
• Scenario D: Pre-AIA §102 Prior Art: Pre-3/16/13 Filing Date With No Subsequent Application
• Scenario E: Pre-AIA §102 Prior Art – Priority of Benefit Claim Without New Matter
• Pre-AIA 35 U.S.C. §102(a)
  • Knowledge or Use by Others as Prior Art Under Pre-AIA §102(a)
• Patents and Printed Publications as Prior Art Under Pre-AIA §102(a)
• Patenting and Printed Publications as Prior Art Under Pre-AIA §102(b)
• Public Use and Offers For Sale as Prior Art Under Pre-AIA §102(b)
• Pre-AIA 35 U.S.C. §102(c) Abandonment of the Invention
• Pre-AIA 35 U.S.C. §102(d) Foreign Filing Bar
• Pre-AIA 35 U.S.C. §102(e) - U.S. Patents and Published Applications as Prior Art
• 35 U.S.C. §102(f) Derivation
• 35 U.S.C. §102(g)(2)· Prior Invention in This Country by Another

• Obviousness/NonObviousness
• “Prior Art” Under §103
• Basic Inquiries Necessary to Determine Obviousness of the Claimed Invention as a Whole
  • Prima Facie Obviousness – MPEP §2142
  • Unsuccessful Arguments
  • Rebutting a Prima Facie Obviousness Rejection With a Showing of Secondary/Objective Indicia of Unobviousness
  • Obviousness Under Pre-AIA §103
  • Pre-AIA 35 U.S.C. §103(c)

Section 5 – Continuing Applications and Request for Continued Examination

• Continuing Applications – Three Types
• Continuations and Divisionals
• Continuation-in-Part (CIP)
• 4 Requirements for Benefit of Earlier Filing Date
• Continuity of Disclosure
• Continuity of Prosecution
• Continuity of Inventorship
• Reference to the Earlier Application
• Timelines of the “Specific Reference”
• Continuing Application – Requirements
• Filing the Specification and Drawings of a Continuing or Divisional Application by Reference
• Request for Continued Examination (“RCE”)

Section 6 – Foreign Priority and Provisional Applications

• Foreign Priority – 35 U.S.C. §119(a)-(d)
• Filing a U.S. Application by Incorporating a Foreign Application by Reference
• Potential Benefits of Foreign Priority
• The Hilmer Doctrine
• Provisional Application – 35 U.S.C. §§111(b) and 119(e)
• Parts of a Complete Provisional Application
• Attributes of a Provisional Application
• Requirements for Receiving the Benefit of the Filing Date of a Provisional Application
• Converting a Nonprovisional Application to a Provisional Application
• Converting a Provisional Application to a Nonprovisional Application

Section 7 – New Matter

• New Matter 35 U.S.C. §132
• What Does Not Constitute New Matter
• USPTO Actions Responsive to the Introduction of New Matter

Section 8 – Nonprovisional Utility Patent Application Requirements

• Requirements
• Methods of Transmitting a Patent Application for Filing in the USPTO
• Electronic Filing – USPTO’s “EFS-Web” System
• Petition to Correct Filing Date Due to Express Mail Discrepancy
• Requirements Regarding the Specification
• Incorporation by Reference 37 CFR §1.57
• Filing a Specification and Drawings by Reference
• Deposit of Biological Material
• Calculating Claim Fees for Multiple Dependent Claims
• Claim Counts
• Abstract of the Disclosure
• Oath or Declaration
• Substitute Statement in Lieu of Oath
• Times for Filing Oath or Substitute Statement
• Small Entity Status
• Micro-Entity Status

Section 9 – Examination of Non-Provisional Applications
• Order of Examination
• Petition to Make Special
• Accelerated Examination Requirements
• Special Circumstances
• Prioritized Examination
• Time for Requesting Prioritized Examination
• Claim Limitations
• Required Fees
• Specification, Claim(s) and Any Required Drawing(s)
• Inventors Oath or Declaration
• Other Requirements
• Differences from Accelerated Examination
• Patent Prosecution Highway (“PPH”)
• Suspension and Deferral of Action
• Inventions Patentable 35 U.S.C. §101
• Statutory & Judicially Recognized Exceptions
• Criteria Applicable to Determining Whether a Judicially-Created Exception is Applicable
• Examples of Claims That Are Patent-Ineligible
• Examples of Claims That Are Patent-Eligible
• Utility - 35 U.S.C. §101
• USPTO Evaluation of Utility
• Rejections Under 35 U.S.C. §112
• Examiners Actions Should Be Complete
• Requests for Information
• Protests – MPEP §1900 et seq.
• Pre-Issuance Submission – 35 U.S.C. §122(e)(2)
• Protests and Pre-Issuance Submissions Compared
• Final Rejection
• Refunds
Section 10 – Amendments and Replies to Patent Office Actions
- Methods of Transmitting Submissions to the USPTO
- Types of Replies to Office Actions
- Preliminary Amendments (Amendments Prior to the First Office Action)
- Supplemental Replies
- Amendments After Final Rejection
- Formal Requirements of a Reply
- How to Amend
- Interviews
- Due Dates and Extensions of Time
- Express Abandonment
- Revival of an Abandoned Application

Section 11 – Overcoming Rejections With Affidavits or Declarations
- Purpose of and Differences Between Affidavits and Declarations
- Three Types of Declarations Authorized by the USPTO
  - Rule 1.131 Declarations
  - Rule 1.132 Declarations
  - Use of a Rule 1.132 Declaration to Remove a Reference
  - Use of a Rule 1.132 Declaration to Rebut a Rejection or an Objection

Section 12 – Double Patenting
- Relationship of Applications or a Patent and an Application Subject to Double Patenting
  - Statutory Double Patenting
  - Non-Statutory Double Patenting
  - Provisional Double-Patenting Rejections
  - Terminal Disclaimer to Avoid an Obviousness-Type Double Patenting Rejection
  - USPTO Restriction Requirement Precludes Double Patenting Rejection
  - Summary of Basic Double Patenting Doctrine

Section 13 – Restriction Requirement and Election of Species
- Restriction Practice
  - Independent (Unrelated) Inventions
  - Distinct Inventions
  - Two Prerequisites to Proper Restriction
  - Independent (Unrelated) Inventions
  - Distinct Inventions
  - Election of Species – Markush Grouping
  - Important Procedural Points

Section 14 – Publication of Patent Applications and Pre-Issue Royalties
- Publication of Patent Applications
  - Exceptions to 18-Month Publication
  - Requests for Nonpublication
• Averting Publication of a Nonprovisional Application Filed Without a Request for Nonpublication
• Consequence of Erroneous Nonpublication Certification
• Public Access to Published Applications
• Provisional Rights Based on Publication
• Early and Voluntary Publication and Republication
• Deferred Examination Option for Published Applications
• AIA §102(a)(2) Prior Art Date of a Published U.S. National Application
• Pre-AIA Prior Art Date of Published U.S. National Applications

Section 15 – Inventorship
• Inventorship

Section 16 – Ownership and Assignment of Applications, Secrecy Orders and Licenses to File Abroad, and Access to Unpublished Applications
• Ownership Follows Inventorship
• Joint Inventors
• Assignment and License
• Recordable Assignments
• Access to Unpublished Applications
• Status Information
• Secrecy Orders
• Licenses to File Abroad

Section 17 – Representing the Applicant
• Who May Prosecute an Application
• Power of Attorney

Section 18 – Allowance, Issue, and Patent Maintenance Fees
• Close of Prosecution and Allowance
• Ex Parte Quayle Action
• Notice of Allowance
• Notice of Allowability
• Withdrawal of Allowance Before Payment of Issue Fee
• Withdrawal From Issue After Payment of Issue Fee
• Issue Fee – 35 U.S.C. §151
• Maintenance Fees
• Revival After Failure to Timely Pay Maintenance Fees

Section 19 – Rights and Procedures Under the Patent Cooperation Treaty
• Patent Cooperation Treaty (PCT)
• PCT Timeline Overview
• Three Stages of PCT Application Processing
• Who Can File an International Application?
• International Bureau as Receiving Office (RO/IB)
• Advantages of RP/US or RO/IB Filing
Elements of an International Application (IA)
Priority Claims
Changes in or Restoration of Priority
Incorporation by Reference (IBR)

Summary of Abbreviations

Six Categories of Prior Art
Category I: Prior Art Under AIA §102(a)(2) and §102(d)
Three Types of AIA §102(a)(2) Prior Art
AIA §102(a)(2) Reference Having No Priority or Benefit Claim
AIA §102(a)(2) Reference Claiming Priority to Earlier-Filed Application
AIA §102(a)(2) Prior Art Date of a Published PCT Application and Resulting U.S. Patent
AIA §102(b)(2) Exceptions to §102(a)(2) Prior Art
AIA §102(b)(2)(A) Exception – Disqualifying §102(a)(2) Reference Based on Derivation
AIA §102(b)(2)(A) Exception – Only Applicable to AIA §102(a)(2) Prior Art, Not to AIA §102(a)(1) Prior Art
AIA §102(b)(2)(B) Exception – Inventor-Originated “Public Disclosure” “Shielding” Disclosure in an Earlier-Filed, Published Application
AIA §102(b)(2)(C) – Common Ownership Exception
Disqualifying an AIA §102(a)(2) Reference Based on Pre-3/16/13 Effective Filing Date
AIA §102(c) Joint Research Agreement Common Ownership
Category II: Pre-AIA §102(e)(1) Reference Date of a Published Domestic Application
Difference: Pre-AIA §102(e) and AIA §102(a)(2) Reference Claiming §119(a) Foreign Priority
Overcoming Pre-AIA 35 U.S.C. §102(e)(1) or §102(e)(2) References
Category III: Pre-AIA §102(e)(1) Reference Date of a United States Patent Issued From a Domestic Application
Category IV: Pre-AIA §102(e)(1) Reference Date of a PCT Application Published by WIPO
Prior Art Date of A Published PCT Application for Application Entitled to Benefit of Pre-AIA Application
Category V: Pre-AIA §102(e)(1) Reference Date of a PCT Application Published by the USPTO Following Entry Into the National Stage in the United States
Category IV(A): §102(e)(2) Reference Date of a U.S. Patent Issued From a PCT Application Filed on or After November 29, 2000
Category IV(B): §102(e) Reference Date of a U.S. Patent Issued From a PCT Application Filed Before November 29, 2000

Section 21 – Petitions and Appeals

- Petitions and Appeals
- Petitions
- Examples of Petitionable Matter
- Appeals
- Notice of Appeal, MPEP §1204
- Post-Notice of Appeal Procedures
- Pre-Appeal Brief Review Request and Conference Pilot Program
- Interviews After Notice of Appeal
- Appeal Brief, MPEP §1205
- Maximum Timeline From Final Rejection to Filing Brief
- Amendments After Appeal
- Examiners Answer – 37 CFR §41.39
- Reply Brief – 37 CFR §41.41
- Request for Oral Hearing – 37 CFR §41.47(b)
- Fees Due During Appeal Process
- Decision by the Board
- Further Review of Board Decisions

Section 22 – Post-Grant Proceedings

- Post-Grant Proceedings
- Certificate of Correction as to Specification and Drawings
- Reissue Applications
- Defects Correctable by Reissue – Anything That Makes the Patent Wholly or Partially Inoperative or Invalid
- Reissue Broadening Claim Scope
- Recapture
- Reissue Oath or Declaration
- Form of Reissue Application
- Documents Filed With Reissue Application
- Reexamination
- Request for Ex Parte Reexamination
- Determination of Request for Reexamination
- Optional Preliminary Statement/Amendment by the Patentee
- Reply by Non-Patentee Requester
- Reexamination – 37 CFR §1.550
- Interviews
- Duty to Disclose
- Appeals
- 8 Key Differences Between Reissues and Reexaminations
- Supplemental Examination
- Trial Proceeding Timeline
- Post-Grant Review
Section 23 – Derivation Proceedings and Interferences
- Derivation Proceedings
- Basic Interference Concepts
- Patent Office Interferences
- Parties’ Designations
- Substantive Criteria for Awarding Priority
- How Interferences Get Started
- Internal USPTO Interference Procedure at the Start
- Proceedings Following Declaration of Interference

Section 24 – Inequitable Conduct and Ethics
- Inequitable Conduct
- Materiality
- Cumulative Information
- Doubtful Information
- Judicial Standard for Materiality
- Intent
- Individuals Under a Duty to Disclose Material Information
- Information Disclosure Statement (IDS)
- Timing Requirements
- IDS Contents
- Twelve Ethics Subjects on Past Exams

Section 25 – Patent Term
- Determining Patent Term
- “A” Delay – 35 USC §154(b)(1)(A)
- “B” Delay – 35 USC §154(b)(1)(B)
- “C” Delay – 35 USC §154(b)(1)(C)
- Applicant’s Delays Deducted From A, B, and C Delay
- USPTO Determination of PTA – MPEP §2733

Section 26 – Design Patents and Plant Patents
- Design Patents
- Hague Agreement Concerning the International Registration of Industrial Designs
- Plant Patents
- Comparing Utility, Design, and Plant Patents
